Oxford Brookes University Oxford, England – UK These are the answers that Oxford Brookes University gave me to my questions: 1. How many Oxford Brookes University data subjects were involved in the Blackbaud data breach? "We are withholding this information as we believe that section 43 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 applies here. Section 43 (2) states that information is exempt from release if its disclosure would or would be likely to prejudice the commercial interests of the authority or another party. We believe that releasing more detailed information on Brookes and other affected organisations than is currently available in the media would prejudice our commercial interests by potentially making us or another institution appear disproportionately affected. I believe this passes the public interest test as affected data subjects have already been provided with all relevant information". 2. What types of personal data were, or may have been stolen from Oxford Brookes University data subjects? "Withheld as above". 3. Has Oxford Brookes University provided any free financial accounts monitoring for Oxford Brookes University data subjects affected by the Blackbaud data breach? "No" 4. Which Blackbaud software, such as Blackbaud Raiser's Edge or Raiser's Edge NXT - Blackbaud Merchant Services - Blackbaud NetCommunity - Blackbaud DonorCentral - Blackbaud Financial Edge NXT and / or others, were involved in the data breach. "Blackbaud NetCommunity". 5. Regarding the Oxford Brookes University, exactly when the cyber attack started and ended (day / month / year) "We do not hold this information".	???	???	???	???	???	???	???	???	???

University of Sunderland Sunderland, England – UK University of Sunderland says "... Further to Section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "Act") we confirm that the information requested is held by the University of Sunderland (the "University"). The University is however withholding some of this information as per Section 31(g) of the Freedom of Information Act. Section 31(g) exempts information from disclosure if its release would or would be likely to prejudice the exercise by any public authority of its functions for any of the purposes specified in subsection (2). Subsection (2) (c) refers to the purpose of ascertaining whether circumstances which would justify regulatory action in pursuance of any enactment exist or may arise... The University can confirm that we have received notification that University data subjects have possibly been affected by a security incident involving Blackbaud, a third party service provider. Attached as appendix A is a copy of the letter that the University has provided to potentially affected data subjects with details of what may have been accessed. This will answer Q2. However, the University is withholding any further information on this at present, as per Section 31(g). It is the University's belief that as an investigation is currently being conducted by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), to release information into the public domain at this stage could potentially compromise the effectiveness of this investigation"	Name	Date of birth, Gender	Address, Phone number, e-mail	Graduation		Donor profile, amount and date			???
